

Explore

Ann Arbor
by trail!

We've selected six trails in Ann Arbor for you to explore! We've also compiled some important statistics that will help you enjoy your hike through Bird Hills Nature Area, Black Woods Pond Nature Area, Cedar Bend Nature Area, Furstenberg Nature Area, Mary Beth Doyle Park and Marshall Nature Area.

Located at 3500 Birch Hollow Drive

Located at 2626 Fuller Road

Located at the corner of Plymouth and Dixboro Roads.

Located at 1495 Cedar Bend Road.

TAKE A HIKE: Start here!

1. Bird Hills

Total trail length: 4.16 miles
Topography: Hilly
Trail type: Natural footpaths

2. Black Pond Woods

Total trail length: 1.24 miles
Topography: Rolling
Trail type: Natural footpaths

3. Mary Beth Doyle

Total trail length: 3.26
Topography: Flat
Trail type: Paved paths, natural footpaths, boardwalks

4. Furstenberg

Total trail length: 1.12 miles
Topography: Flat
Trail type: Paved paths, natural footpaths, boardwalk

5. Marshall

Total trail length: 1.74
Topography: Rolling
Trail type: Natural footpaths

6. Cedar Bend

Located at 1495 Cedar Bend Road.
Total trail length: 1.21
Topography: Hilly
Trail type: Natural footpaths