Wednesdays at the Farmers Market begins May 7

Ann Arbor, Michigan, April 30, 2008 — Wednesdays at the Ann Arbor Farmers Market are back!

Starting Wednesday, May 7, the Ann Arbor Farmers Market will be open from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Stop by on the way to work to get your weekly groceries, or walk over at lunch to pick up a delicious snack!

Celebrate spring's bounty, with asparagus, delicate salad greens, and crisp radishes. You'll also find farm-fresh eggs, artisan bread, local apples and apple cider, crafts from our artisans, delicious baked goods, cut flowers, humanely-raised meat, annuals and perennials for your garden, honey, and maple syrup.

Be sure to stop by and meet new Farmers Market Manager Molly Notarianni.

Ann Arbor has 114,000 residents, spans 27.7 square miles, and was also named one of the top 25 U.S. cities to live in by CNN/Money Magazine in 2006 as well as the fourth smartest city in the U.S. by Forbes Magazine. The city's mission statement reads: The city of Ann Arbor is committed to providing excellent municipal services that enhance the quality of life for all through the intelligent use of resources while valuing an open environment that fosters, fair, sensitive and respectful treatment of all employees and the community we serve.
