

37th Annual Ann Arbor Preservation Awards

June 3, 2024

Preservation Award

1617 Cambridge Road

Built 1917

Arts and Crafts Style

Built for Dr. Murray Cowie, former Ann Arbor City Physician and professor at the University of Michigan

Presented to David Ammer and Nell Duke

Preservation Award

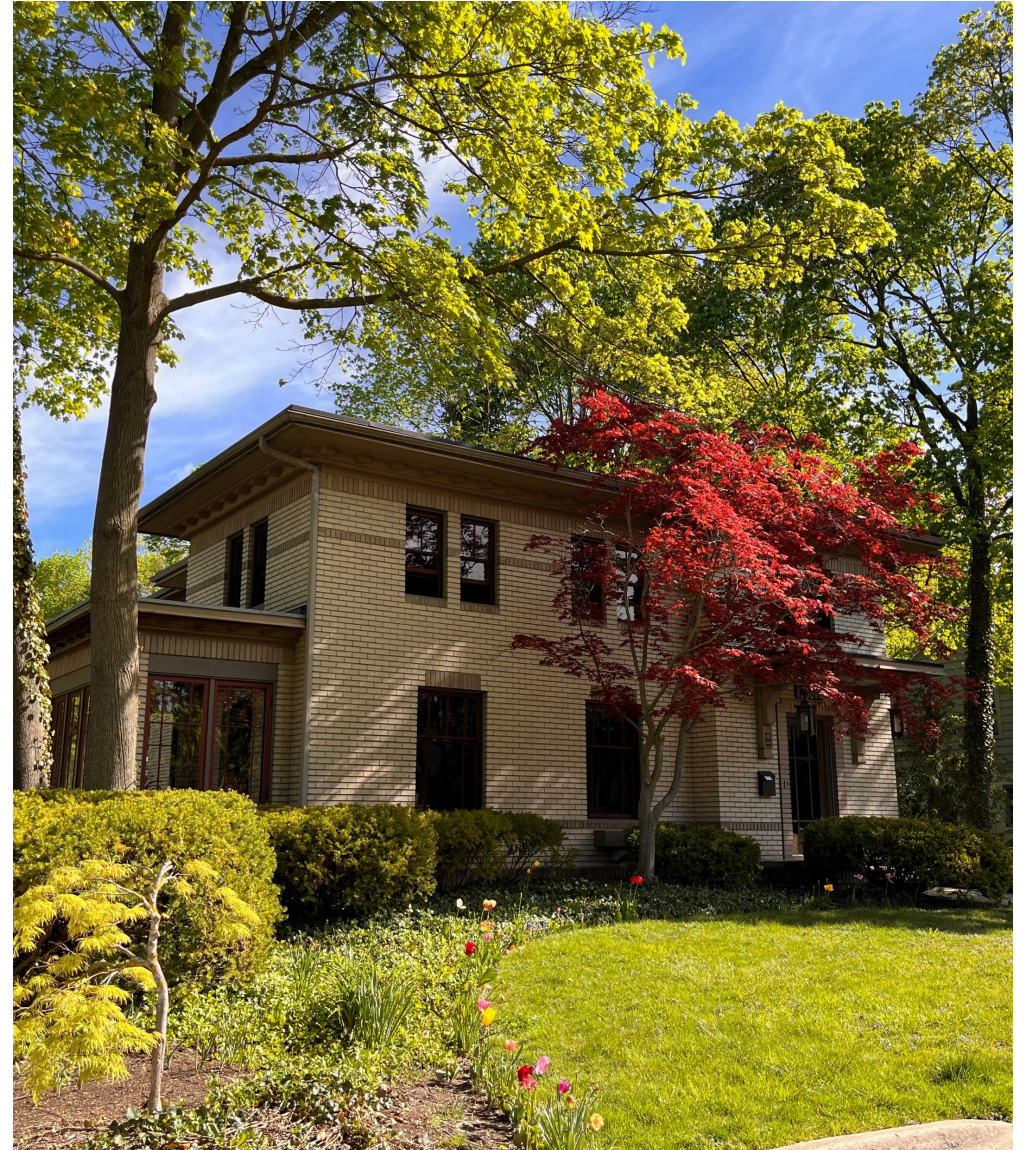

2001 Vinewood Boulevard

Built 1919

Prairie Style

Designed by J.J. Rousseau, a Professor of Architecture at the University of Michigan, to be his home

Presented to David and Norma Golovoy

Preservation Award

2017 Vinewood Boulevard

Built 1929

Tudor Style

Features unusual dormers and a larger chimney on the front

Presented to Lawrence and Elizabeth Jordan

Preservation Award

2023 Vinewood Boulevard

Built 1951

Mid-Century Modern Style

Designed by local architect Thomas Tanner for Harry Cook, the son of one of the founders of the Ann Arbor
Foundry on Jones Drive

Presented to Bruce and Andrea Laidlaw

Preservation Award

819 Avon Road

Built 1950

Mid-Century Modern

Designed by George Brigham, widely considered the father of modern architecture in Ann Arbor, for Professor Leslie White, an anthropologist

Presented to David Deromedi

Preservation Award

1021 Chestnut Street

Built 1961

Mid-Century Modern Style

Designed by local architect Robert Metcalf, who trained and taught at the University of Michigan, for Kenneth Case, a physics professor

Presented to Charles and Joan Burleigh

Preservation Award

214 Crest Avenue

Built 1914

Dutch Revival Style

A typical Old West Side house of the early 20th century, with original features such as the windows, doors, and garage with two-strip driveway

Presented to Mary Parsons

Preservation Award

1101 West Liberty Street

Built 1917

Arts and Crafts Style

Built for Albert Lutz, owner of the Reliable Shoe Dealer Shop on East Washington Street, and featured on the Old West Side Homes Tour in 2018

Presented to Philip and Kimberly Hughes

Special Merit Award

403 West Liberty Street

Built 1892-1895

Queen Anne Style

Built by Frederick Schleicher and recently restored with the removal of the non-historic fire escapes and reconstruction of period porches on the front and side elevations

Presented to Janet Muhleman

Rehabilitation Award

1435 Broadway Street

Built 1929

Colonial Revival Style

A Montgomery Ward Kit House that was recently renovated with the porch and windows restored

Presented to Krystyna and Andrzej Dolata

Rehabilitation Award

503 West Jefferson Street

Built 1890

Vernacular Style

Built by William Hoeft, who was a trained carpenter and active in organizations such as the Ancient Order of United Workmen

Presented to Jon and Grace VanderVliet

Centennial Award

Kiwanis Club

Organized on May 13, 1921, with 60 charter members

In 1927, their now famous Thrift Sales started at the Ann Arbor Armory and then moved to Washington and First streets in 1968. Funds raised through these sales support many charitable organizations. They are now located on Staebler Road

Their motto is “Help us, Help Kids, Families and our Community” and they have done so now for one hundred years.

Kudos to the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor!

2024 Historic District Commission Awards

The Ann Arbor News