On 4/3/24 at approximately 8:00am, officers responded to a report of a stabbing on a AATA bus in the 2200 block of Fuller Road. Preliminary investigation reveals a 25-year-old female and a 21-year-old male bumped into each other on the bus. The 21-year-old male then pulled out a knife and slashed the female across her chest.

The 21-year-old male fled the scene on foot. He was located and arrested by officers without incident near the scene. The 25-year-old female was transported to the hospital with non-life-threatening injuries. She is in stable condition.

Detectives are currently investigating the connection between this incident and prior felonious assaults involving a knife that occurred in Ann Arbor on 3/27/24 and 4/1/24.
