In accordance with the bylaws of the Ann Arbor Historic District Commission, an annual report is to be prepared by staff, approved by the Commission, and presented to City Council each year outlining the activities of the Historic District Commission for the previous year.

Annual Retreat

A Historic District Commissioner retreat was held March 6, 2021. The retreat agenda included review and discussion of:

- Annual by-law review
- Design guidelines for egress windows and meters
- 2021 Work Plan
- Review of Projects built in the last year
- City solar initiative

Meetings

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, all HDC meetings in 2021 were held virtually via Zoom.

Certificates of Appropriateness

A total of 333 applications were received by the Commission in 2021 for Certificates of Appropriateness. The Historic District Commission has delegated a number of minor activities to staff to approve on their behalf, and 261 of the 333 (or 78%) applications submitted were approved by staff.

The Commission held hearings on the other 72 applications during their regular monthly meetings. Seven were denied and the rest received Certificates of Appropriateness. All of the sites were visited prior to their hearing by the HDC Review Committee, which consists of two Commissioners and staff.

Historic Preservation Awards

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, no historic preservation awards were granted in 2021.
