BANK ROBBERY (25-2005)

On 1/14/25 at approximately 4:40pm, officers responded to the Chase Bank at 3500 Plymouth Road for a bank robbery. Preliminary investigation revealed a male suspect entered the bank, approached the teller window, and demanded cash while stating he had a gun.

The teller provided the suspect with an undisclosed amount of cash. The suspect fled the area in a gray GMC Terrain and was last seen driving southbound on Green Road. There was no weapon seen during the incident and no one was injured.

The suspect (see attached surveillance pictures) is described as an adult white male who was wearing a green long sleeve shirt, black pants, and a camo face covering. The incident remains under active investigation. Anyone with information can contact AAPD at 734.794.6920, email the tip line at tips@a2gov.org, or submit a tip to silent witness at aapd.a2gov.org/silentwitness.
