IMMEDIATE RELEASE

On 11/27/24, 24-year-old Edward Newland of Ypsilanti, was arraigned at 14A-1 District Court on one count of accosting a child for immoral purposes.

Newland was arrested for a probation violation related to his involvement in an incident with a Tappan Middle School student on 11/22/24. The student in this case was able to provide the suspect's license plate to our officers.

Further investigation revealed Newland was also responsible for a similar incident involving another Tappan student that occurred on 11/18/24. In both incidents, the student was approached by a man in a vehicle while walking home from school. In the 11/18/24 incident, the suspect tried to convince the student to get into his vehicle.

Newland is currently lodged at Washtenaw County Jail. His bond was set at $100,000 cash/surety.

As always, we urge community members to immediately report suspicious activity by calling 911 or non-emergency Dispatch: 734.994.2911.
