RESIDENT PARTICIPATION OPPORTUNITY!

You are invited to attend a Resident Participation Meeting hosted by the Ann Arbor District Library for their request to rezone the site of the Downtown Library. There is no specific project planned at this time. At this meeting you will have the opportunity to learn about the rezoning request, ask questions, and give feedback. A report of the meeting will be prepared by the Library and submitted to the City of Ann Arbor with their final application. The report will include attendance, a summary of the meeting, and any written correspondence received by the Library.
